Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackall contemplates giving a song recital at the Young Hotel on Tuesday, November 27, which should be a treat to the musiclovers of Honolulu. On this occasion she will be assisted by Mrs. A. B. Ingalls, violinist, and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, accompanist. Mrs. Mackall was formerly a soprano soloist in historic St. John's in Washington, the ultra fashionable church at the national capital which has been the place of worship there of nearly all of the prominent Washingtonians including Mrs. Roosevelt. She occupied a similar position in the pro-cathedral and the Calvary Baptist churches in the same city. Mrs. Mackall has an exceptionally rich voice with broad range and her singing is full of expression. The program for the recital will include some of the classical musical compositions as well as an occasional ballad. The list of patronnesses will be published later.
